

Michigan Showcase: The MVPs - Scout.com March 1, 2010

By Allen Trieu

THE LIFTING AS WE CLIMB FOUNDATION, INC

Defensive Skill Position MVP

Kenny Mullen / CB / Fort Wayne Bishop Luers (IN) 2011 - (5'9, 165)

Every event he comes to, Mullen shows he can hang with the best. He is comfortable playing man to man coverage and press man. He has good makeup ability and football smarts. He made several nice breakups, showing his ball skills as well.

Bill Greene: Kenny Mullen is a guy that impressed me. His skill set's high, but he impressed me more with work ethic, determination and drive. His talent is as good as anyone's, but what's going to separate him from everyone else is his attitude. He took as many reps as he could. Now, I wish he was a little bit more flexible, but he's a D1 defensive back. I really liked him a lot.

Dave Berk: He is fluid and has great hips and feet.